READY FOR WORK

Washington County Republicans Have Organized for the Campaign.

The Central Committee Elects its Own Officers and Also Selects an Executive Committee.

Pursuant to call, the Republican Central Committee of Washington county met at the Court House at eleven o'clock a. m. Saturday for the purpose of organizing and the selection of an executive committee of seven members.

The committee this year consists of forty members, the largest in the history of the county, the increase being due to the division of the city of Marietta into a number of precincts.

Chairman E. L. Brown, of the old committee, called the body to order in the court room, and designated Mr. A. D. Stanley as temporary secretary. On a call of the roll, all members of the committee except Frank Hill, of Little Hocking, responded to their names.

Following is the full committee:

Adams—A. D. Stanley.
Elba—L. L. Dutton.
Macksburg—J. M. Widdows.
Barlow—A. M. Farlow.
Belpre Village—E. L. Brown.

Palmer—George Marshall.

Wesley—D. E. Ellis.

Salem—John Doan.

Warren—T. W. Moore.

Watertown—L. S. Bingham.

Waterford—E. T. Hayward.

On motion of Mr. Farlow, E. L. Brown was unanimously elected as chairman of the Central Committee.

On motion of Leonard Shaw, H. G. Bohl was unanimously elected as secretary.

Committeeman Merrill moved that C. W. Caywood be seated as the committeeman from Fearing township. Mr. Bohl moved to amend by substituting the name of Charles W. Zimmer, stating that the convention had taken decisive action on the matter and that all of the evidence, including the minutes of the convention, went to show that Mr. Zimmer was regularly elected. Mr. Bohl was supported by Messrs. Starling and Shaw, and on a ballot Mr. Zimmer was seated by a vote of 20 to 13.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

On motion the election of an executive committee of seven members was proceeded with, the vote being by ballot. Two tickets were presented, with the following result:

THE WINNER.

H. V. Speelman, 20.

S. S. McGee, 20.

J. L. Toler, 20.

Junius Greenwood, 20.

L. C. Hayes, 20.

John M. Doan, 20.

James H. King, 20.

THE LOSER.

C. P. Dyar, 19.

D. A. Leake, 3.

R. S. Rowland, 19.

Theo. F. Hayward, 19.

John W. Lansley, 19.

C. A. Miller, 19.

S. E. Garrison, 19.

B. G. Dawes, 19.

Three of the latter tickets voted contained eight names, the extra name being that of Mr. Leake.

This completing its work, the committee adjourned.

The newly-elected executive committee will meet some time in the near future for organization.

convention select names to be selected for the functions of delegates and alternates. This arrangement suited the temper of the "old line" Democrats and was accordingly carried.

The following names were then presented: Alla Windsor, J. P. Marsch, B. J. McKinney, J. P. Mason, Henry Roeser, S. G. Linscott, C. E. Verges, J. S. Devo, Frank Panhorst, J. H. Smith, James Ryan, H. B. Coen, J. A. Hart, Dr. O. A. Lambert, B. F. Wood, D. B. Torpy, L. W. Ellenwood, Wm. Stephan, D. N. Campbell, J. W. Miller, Clayton Harper, C. B. Pagett, A. T. Williamson, Loffland Devine, Chas. Richardson, C. W. Decker.

J. P. Marsch, Robert White, J. F. Ryan and Chas. Brown were appointed as tellers and the balloting started off. The result was as follows:

DELEGATES.

J. P. Marsch, 33.

B. J. McKinney, 32.

L. W. Ellenwood, 32.

D. B. Torpy, 30.

Frank Panhorst, 29.

J. F. Ryan, 25.

H. B. Coen, 22.

Henry Roeser, 21.

Wm. Stephan, 19.

O. A. Lambert, 13.

J. S. Devo, 13.

ALTERNATES.

B. F. Wood, 13.

Chas. Richardson, 15.

Alla Windsor, 13.

C. E. Verges, 11.

Clayton Harper, 10.
S. G. Linscott, 10.
J. H. Hart, 9.

A. T. Williamson, 6.

C. W. Decker, 7.

W. H. Smith, 4.

Christ Emge, 2.

S. G. Linscott arose and amid profound silence made a motion that the convention instruct its delegates to the state convention to cast the vote of Washington county for Col. James Kilbourne for Governor. As no one of the twenty present, to which number approximately the convention had, by this time diminished objected, the motion prevailed.

A motion to proceed in the same manner to the selection of delegates for the Senatorial convention prevailed, but was afterwards rescinded. As a substitute, S. G. Linscott offered a motion that the chair appoint a committee of three with power to select 54 delegates to the Senatorial convention to be held at Lancaster next Friday, June 28.

DELEGATES.

Adams—T. C. Emge, John D. Holinger.

Amellus—Samuel Bess.

Barlow—C. F. Tracy.

Belpre Village—John C. O'Neal.

Little Hocking—C. W. Oakes.

Rockland—Chas. Simpson.

Deatur—H. F. Toby.

UP IN ARMS

Are Miners at Thacker and Lickford Mines in West Virginia.

Strikers in Control of a Mine Poured a Furious and Accurate Fire Into the Guards, Routing Them.

By Associated Press.

Williamson, W. Va., June 22.—All miners at Thacker and Lickford mines came out last night and arming themselves they went into the mountains where they could overlook the entrance to the latter mines. They waited an opportunity to open battle, which was given by an outpost at the mine firing at a squad of miners. The miners poured in a furious and accurate fire. The guard who came here to inform the sheriff of the conditions said the bullets fell like hail and that little time was occupied in routing the guards. A number are said to have taken flight and refused to act.

The strikers are in absolute control of the entrance to the mine and according to their position nothing but a regiment of troops can dislodge them, and then at a heavy loss of life.

HOLDING A MEETING.

Matewan, W. Va., June 22.—Tonight the miners are holding a meeting and what they decide on is awaited with much interest. However, their success during the last few days is so good that it is thought they will resist to the end all attempts to dislodge them from the position that they hold at Lickford.

All non-union men quit work today and not a single colliery is in operation. Another outbreak may occur at any time. Disinterested persons are rapidly leaving. Union men continue to arrive, armed with Winchesters.

The federal injunction caused great resentment and everywhere the Deputy Marshals are greeted with jeers. Union men say they will not obey any injunction and if force is used the consequence will be fearful. The militia is expected to be called out at any moment.

TERRIFIC STORM

Sweeps Over Pittsburg and Several Lives are Lost.

By Associated Press.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 22.—Pittsburg and vicinity was visited today by one of the fiercest storms known here for years. The wind was not high except in a path a few hundred feet wide which swept like a tornado from McKee's Rocks through Allegheny, a portion of the east end of Pittsburg and on to Turtle Creek. Three lives are known to be lost. Jas. Howard, aged 15, was killed by a live wire. Ten year old Jas. Dunn was drowned in the creek. Chas. Marcus, an Italian, was drowned while working in a sewer.

The damage will amount to about $200,000. The tornado struck the grand stand at the bull park in Allegheny and carried it away bodily 150 feet, and moved from its foundations the entire stand.

Hay's Son Found Dead.

By Associated Press.

New Haven, Conn., June 23.—Adelbert P. Hay, son of Secretary Hay, and former Consul to Pretoria, was found dead on the sidewalk outside the New Haven House at 2:30 this morning.

It is believed that he became ill and went to the window for air and was overcome by a fit of dizziness and fell to the ground. A medical examiner is now at the hotel.

Not Reported to Gov. White.

By Associated Press.

Charleston, W. Va., June 22.—Governor White has had no official notice of any labor or other troubles in this state and no request has been made for troops, or if made, they have not reached him. The Governor left at 3 this afternoon for Parkersburg to spend Sunday with his family and will return to Charleston the first of the week. All knowledge that the Governor had of the troubles at Matewan was confined to newspaper reports.

ROBERT WADDELL

Wins American Derby, Terminus Second, The Parader Third.

While Few Backed the Comparatively Friendless Animal, the Applause at the Finish Was Tumultuous.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, June 22.—Thirty thousand people saw "Virginia" Bradley's Aloha gelding, Robert Waddell, at 12 to 1, win the Fourteenth American Derby by a length in 2:33 4-5, the record time for the race.

Few backed the comparatively friendless animal. The applause at the finish was tumultuous.

Jockey Bullman, to whom fell the honor of taking two derbies in succession, swept into a human maelstrom after he dismounted. Upon the shoulders of strong men he was carried and a detail of blue coats had to be called to clear the admiring throng from the course.

Terminus, the W. T. Shafer Blazes colt was second, while the favorite, R. T. Wilson's grand looking Longstreet colt, The Parader, was a tired third.

Frank Farrel's Bonni Bert, that shared with The Parader, at one time the honors of the favorite, failed to run his race and was fourth.

His Eminence had a bad start, but under Jockey O'Don's terrific riding, at the end landed in fifth position.

Sannazarra, Six Shooter, Beau Gallant, Silverdale and Sadie S. finished in the order named behind His Eminence.

The Parader was seventh away at the drop of the flag and after he was in the field made one false break. Pig-gott's orders were to make a killing pace. He at once took the favorite to the front and there The Parader remained until the stretch was reached. Jockey Bullman rated his mount into second place and kept Robert Waddell within striking distance until the head stretch. Bullman was the most disconsolate man on the big track an hour and a half before the Derby was run. Then it seemed he would not have a mount in the race, although last year on Sidney Lucas he won the race. His friends worked hard to secure a mount for him. "Virginia" Bradley was undecided between Vandusen and him for a mount on his entry. He heard from poolroom men that Bullman might not try to win. Calling Bullman an hour before the bugle summoned the animals to the post he offered him $2000 if he would win with Waddell. Bullman was fixed.

There were fifty-seven bookmakers at the track and they did a large business on all races, without interference by authorities. Bullman's presence on Bradley's gelding caused considerable picking on the 12 to 1 shot, but the bulk of public speculation was on more "fashionable" animals.

The Parader held firm at 3 to 1. Bonni Bert opened at 3 1/2 to 1 but receded a half point. Beau Gallant was backed 6 to 1. His Eminence closed at 9 to 2. Considerable play on Sannazarra sent his odds down from 20 to 15 to 1 at post time.

The withdrawal of Lady Schorr left the Schorr entry, Silverdale, with a strong and loyal following, which pounded odds from 8 to 6 to 1.

Terminus' odds were stationary at 15 to 1. Six Shooter, 15 to 20 to 1.

There was a brilliant scene all around the track. There was a wealth of equipages and bright costumes and perspiration masses everywhere. But for the great good natured crowd the heat and dust did not ruffle tempers.

Immediately after the derby was run extravagant stories were circulated about the fortune "Virginia" Bradley won on the victory of his gelding. All Bradley would say was that he played a few fifty dollar bills in winter book, when the gelding held at 100 to 1. Waddell today won $19,000 for him. Terminus won $3000. The Parader's share was $2000.

New Record.

By Associated Press.

New York, June 22.—At Sheepshead Bay today 20,000 people saw Brigadier's sensational victory in the Sheepshead Bay handicap at a mile. He ran the distance easily in 1:37 4-5, making the new world's record for a circular track. The previous record for a mile on a circular track was made by Votter at 1:38, and by Orimar last summer. The grand National Steeple chase was perhaps the feature of the day's program. Fourteen good cross country horses faced the starter. The stake was worth $7000. In a pretty race Sacket won.

Five furlongs: Cameron, first; Evelyn Mand, second; Lady Holyrood, third. Time, 1:13 3-5.

Six furlongs: Wax Taper, first; Mesmerist, second; May W., third. Time, 1:18 2-5.

The Surf, five and one-half furlongs: Smart Set, first; Leonid, second; Dean Swift, third. Time, 1:07 2-5.

DEMOCRATS

Elect Delegates to the State and Senatorial Conventions.

A mass convention of Democrats of Washington county met in the jury room of the Court House at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. There were probably 40 representative Democrats present, of which number a large proportion were from Marietta.

At 1:20 the convention was called to order by acting chairman J. P. Marsch. H. B. Coen was chosen temporary chairman and Frank Panhorst, temporary secretary.

Mr. Coen stated that the first thing in order was the selection of delegates to the state convention to nominate a candidate for governor.

Mr. Marsch made a motion that the chair appoint a committee of five to select eleven delegates and eleven alternates to the state convention. This motion precipitated trouble and opposition was immediately developed. To a number of the delegates the motion gave rise to the suspicion that a "slate" had been made and that a faction was trying to rule the affairs of the convention.

After considerable discussion pro and con the motion was put and carried without giving the delegates a right to make remarks. This action immediately aroused the ire of the opposition.

W. H. Smith thereupon moved that the convention reconsider its action. Such action was taken and the original motion was then before the convention. W. H. Smith said that under all circumstances there must be harmony in the party.

W. P. Mason stated in no mild tones that it was his opinion that a mass convention was for the purpose of selecting delegates by a direct vote and not to delegate this duty to the chairman and a committee.

W. H. Smith then offered as an amendment to the original motion that 22 names be placed before the convention and that the eleven receiving the highest number of votes be delegates and the other eleven be alternates to the state convention.

The amended motion that the chair appoint a committee of five with power to select 22 names to be voted upon, when put to a vote, was lost.

Henry Roeser then moved that the
